

SAY NO TO NAIS

What is NAIS?

The USDA has drafted a plan called the National Animal Identification System (NAIS) which will force private citizens to individually tag/microchip their poultry, horses, and livestock. Their movements will then be tracked by a GPS system. Each farm or backyard where the animal resides must also be assigned a premise ID number.

What Some People Are Saying.....

- Its going to happen anyway, there is nothing I can do to change it!

- They will never find me. I live out too far.
- I only have 6 chickens.
- If the Government says so, we have to comply.

And.

- My animals are only pets.
- They won't really do this.
- Are You Sure? It sounds Like a Really Bad Urban Legend.

They won't tag me, will they?

And the most ignorant say...

I'll just wait until I really need to do something.
